

THIS ISSUE

Theme: The Paradox of Context

From the Editor

Church as Oasis 2

From the Worship and Music Desk

The Hour of Worship Is an Eternal Now 3

Preaching Pointers

Preaching in Creation Time 4

Reflections for the Season

Amen 5

Worship Words

Creation Time: Season of Creation Revisited 6

Sunday by Sunday

Trinity Sunday to Reign of Christ Sunday, Year A . . 7

Worship Sparks

Children’s Communion, Prayers Borrowed
from Rhyming Stories, and Decorating the Table
for All Saints’ Day 31

Prayers for Worship

For Summer and Autumn, Year A 33

Seasonal Ideas and Resources

Not Your Usual Greeting Card (Father’s Day) 53
 God the Singer (summer service) 54
 For All Time 56
 Jesus Laughed Out Loud (dialogue sermon) 58
 Terry Fox Run (prayer) 60
 Mirror, Mirror, on the Wall (reading scripture) 61
 Crossings (spontaneous drama) 61
 Gifts of the Spirit (Recovenanting Sunday) 63
 Blessing of the Animals (St. Francis’s Day) 64
 Simon Peter (monologue) 65
 Prayer for God’s Presence on Afghanistan 66

Closing a Church Building
(service of transition) 67
 Dedication of Memorial Gifts 68
 A Dialogue on Thanksgiving 68
 A Prayer for Holy Communion in the Celebration of Holy Matrimony 70

For Future Reference

The Paradox of Context 71
 Soul in the City 71
 A Sense of Place 72
 A City Communion Prayer 73
 Small Communities in Rural Canada 74
 Worship Expressions for People in Rural Communities 75
 A Lament 76
 Creating Context in Worship 76

For Church Musicians

Prelude: The Paradox of Context 79
 When Is a Pipe Organ Just a Pipe Organ? 80
 Musings on Some Hymns Worth Singing (Part 2) . 81
 Say Grace 84
 Scores: “St. Francis Cared for Animals” 85
 “When Two Are Joined” 86

Our Purpose

Gathering is a periodical by and for worship planners and leaders. It is a gathering of gifts from the church for the church; gifts that come out of lived experience.

Gathering is the pulse of United Church of Canada worship practice and theology. It is grassroots: a variety of voices, a connection with colleagues, a reflection of the changes and evolution in worship, and an opportunity for sharing wisdom and teaching about worship practice.